THE PREZ SEZ

The month of January promotes Break-A-Cold... Economy With Eggs, March of Dimes, National Colorado Beef and Wheat Bread Month. It's also No Smoking Month and Louisiana Yam Super Season... This is 1967... A New year in a world of PROMOTION as well as COMOTION! Let's leave the commotion to its spontaneity and really concentrate on promotion... Why not ABWA? Let's promote ABWA twelve months. Are you talking it up with thoughts moving toward the Hand of Friendship Tea, March 12? Promote the tea! Are you attending your meetings regularly? Promote through attendance and support. Are you enthusiastic? It's "catching" to anyone when you promote ABWA in daily contacts. Let's really make 1967 a PROMOTION YEAR. Let's take a part... share a responsibility... encourage a new member... attend every meeting... work eagerly and compatibly. Let's all go to Chattanooga for the District Meeting! Watch Out! Because if you do these things, you're going to enjoy yourself in ABWA so much more than you ever have and that's a promise!

WHAT'S HAPPENING?

THE ATTENDANCE CONTEST ends in January. Have you supported your team captain? Winners will be named and we'll learn the rewards planned for these faithful members.

ANNOUNCEMENT of Woman of the Year will be made by the committee. There were two candidates for this honor. You'll want to hear the report January 24.

THE BRIDGE TOURNAMENT CONTINUES. Our special appreciation is extended to Ann and Chester Bays for the use of their lovely home and for their congeniality.

Here are the hostesses (hostesses please take note)

January 19 - Marie Flora and Gladys Walker

January 26 - Brenda Williams and Holly Denney

February 2 - Lucille Walton and Katie Houk

February 9 - Estelle Holloway and Pat Potter

Linda Sidebottom and myself took "kick-off" night.

Sue Short and Joyce Lewis served January 12.

Hostesses are required to furnish and serve the refreshments and to assist in clean-up detail after play is over (usually around 11 o'clock - I shall not deceive you). You must stay until play is over and leave everything "ship-shape" for the next week. We wouldn't want Ann to have to clean up after us. It is also a good idea for the hostesses to check with the previous week's hostesses to see what supplies are left i.e. cups, forks and spoons, sugar napkins, etc., then you will avoid buying unnecessarily.

Sneak previews are coming from the Boss Night corner. Plans are formulating into interesting and exciting facets of activity. We'll be hearing more from Boss Nighter, Brenda Williams.

To our sick members We're hoping Linda Sidebottom will be up, out and with us real soon. She is always missed.

Judy Faught, our vice president, is back in circulation.

The Scrapbook Committee is holding a delightful surprise. We'll be previewing this work from Joyce Lewis, Pat Potter and friends. You'll want to see what's going to District Meeting, March 4-5, in Chattanooga, Tennessee.

Gladys Walker is working on the Year Book, too. This must also be ready for the District Meeting. If Gladys calls on you.....HELP HER!

ATTENTION...ATTENTION...ATTENTION.....

Your ATTENTION is called to the Banquet Report from Mary Thomas. Please read carefully.

Your January 24 meeting will be at the Holiday Inn, The Kentucky Room. The cost will be $3.25. The new management at Western Hills Restaurant booked a political rally for 600 on our regular meeting night. Therefore, this move was unavoidably sudden.

We will discuss the future plans for our meeting place, so it is very important that Everyone Attend the January Meeting.

Please come and voice your interests in the proceedings.

GUEST SPEAKER

If you have problems in regards to insurance, be sure to have your questions ready for Mr. Tandy Faxon, representing State Farm. Mr. Faxon is our guest speaker for the January meeting and will give a general discussion on "Auto, Life, and Fire Insurance - The Purpose, Benefits and Why it is necessary." Bring your questions on any of your insurance problems!

GRAND SLAM? - BABY SLAM? -

GOING DOWN? - PENNIES?

Which will it be? These are only a few of the questions buzzing the home of Ann and Chester Bays.

This week we progress into the third week of the bridge tournament and the competition stiffens. I believe some of these players could or did help Charles Goren write his book on bridge.

We are very pleased to have twenty eight players participating in the tournament. The first night's proceeds amounted to $68.00. This does not include our penny pot in which $2.17 was placed. The second night of play we cleared $28.00 and $3.09 in pennies.

The winners up to date are: January 5 - Mrs. Bill Davis - High and Mrs. Jean Johnson - Second High. January 12 - Mr. Bill Davis took High honors and Pauline Farrigan placed Second High. It is still anyone's game and we are all plugging for that grand prize!

The hostesses are doing a lovely job and the refreshments are superb! Would you believe that I saw the same person eat four of Sue Short's cupcakes??? Would you believe three????

Since I am just about low on the totum pole I guess I had better wrap this up and get out Mr. Goren's rule book.

I'll be keeping you informed!!!

JUDY FAUGHT
Tournament Chairman

"FOUR BONES"

Someone has said that membership in every Association is made up of four kinds of bones.

There are the "WISH BONES" who spend their time "wishing" somebody else would do the work.

There are the "JAW BONES" who do all the "talking", but very little else.

Next there are the "KNUCKLE BONES" who "knock" everything that anyone ever tries to do.

And finally, there are the "BACK BONES" who get to the load and do the work!
